

January 31, 2023

BEER MEMO: 2023-04

To: Public School Operated Child Care Programs

From: Michelle Evans, Director
Bureau of Early Care Regulation

RE: Revisions to DCF 251 – Licensing Rules for Group Child Care Centers and Programs Established or Contracted for By School Boards

The department is revising child care licensing rules that will go into effect on March 1, 2023. The primary purpose of the rule revisions was to update rules relating to school-age only programs. While revising those rules, the department decided to look at all licensing rules to determine where revisions were needed.

Summary of Changes for DCF 251 – Licensing Rules for Group Child Care Centers and Programs Established or Contracted for By School Boards

This memo is a summary of rule changes and does not include every repeal, revision, or addition to DCF 251. This memo should not be used as a substitute for a thorough review of the revised licensing rules.

Records and Staff Requirements

1. Child abuse and neglect training has been moved from the Reporting Child Abuse or Neglect section to Qualifications of Staff section.
2. Children's record requirements have been reorganized and clarified.
3. A new Program Aide and School-Age Program Aide position has been created; Program Aides may not be counted in ratios.

School-age Only Programs

1. Section DCF 251.094 has been created for staff in a school-age only program.
2. New positions have been added and previous positions have been clarified for general group centers and school-age only centers, including a School-age Program Aide, School-age Director, School-age Administrator, School-age Program Leader, and School-age Group Leader.
3. Section DCF 251.095 has been revised and addresses additional requirements, modifications, and exceptions for school-age only programs.

Other Rule Changes

1. Providers are not required to use DCF forms for enrollment or health history information but must still include the required information listed in the rules.
2. Rules relating to fire protection have been clarified and reorganized.

Trainings

The department will be offering in-person and virtual trainings for child care providers to review and discuss new rules. The department has also created an interactive online training for providers to review in lieu of or in addition to attending a live training. Each region will be hosting trainings for providers between February 20 – March 23. Information regarding the dates, times, locations, and rule groups for each training event can be located on the department's website at: <https://dcf.wisconsin.gov/childcare/ccadminrule>, or you may contact your regional licensing office.

Rule revisions will also be covered in a high-level overview during Tuesday Talks with DECE on March 21, 2023 at 1:30 pm. More information can be found at: <https://dcf.wisconsin.gov/childcare/tuesday-talks>.

Additional Information

The department is working on updates to licensing forms, publications, and webpages to reflect changes in the rules. Please be sure to use the most recent version of each form or publication available on the department's website located at dcf.wisconsin.gov/cclicensing/ccformspubs.

The final rule changes are available on the department's website at: <https://dcf.wisconsin.gov/childcare/ccadminrule>. Licensing rule manuals and commentary manuals will be available on or about March 1, 2023.

The department will not be mailing printed rule books to providers. Rule books will be available in an electronic format online. If you would like to obtain a print copy, you may purchase one by filling out the Instructions for Obtaining Child Care Licensing Rule Books or by contacting the Northern Regional Office at (715) 361-7700.

If you have any questions or require assistance accessing information or forms on the DCF website, please contact your regional licensing office. Licensing contact information can be found at the following webpage: <https://dcf.wisconsin.gov/cclicensing/contacts>.

Thank you for the important role you play in the lives of children and families across Wisconsin.